PLAINTIFF’S SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF INJUNCTIVE AND DECLARATORY RELIEF (ECF-19)

Plaintiff supplements his prior-filed Brief (ECF-19) and shows:

1. During the hearing on November 29, 2018, his Honor inquired whether “in the absence of even a proceeding having been filed, that we do not have a ripe case.” (ECF-18 at page 4)

2. Attached hereto and incorporated by reference is the “Petitioner, The Commission for Lawyer Discipline’s Notice of Appearance and Designation of Attorney in Charge” that has been filed in Cause No. 2019-04555, pending in the 334TH Judicial District Court of Harris County. This shows that there is now pending a disciplinary suit against Plaintiff herein, Charles W. Medlin.

3. Attached hereto and incorporated by reference is the Request for Issuance of Service in Cause No. 2019-04555, pending in the 334TH Judicial District Court of Harris County.

4. Plaintiff has not yet been served with the Original Disciplinary Petition¹ and counsel was unable to view or download the image of the petition that is reflected on the Harris County District Clerk's website. Plaintiff has no reason to believe that the Original Disciplinary Petition that has been filed with the District Clerk of Harris County is any different than the document, ECF 1-2.

CONCLUSION AND PRAYER:

5. The two attachments hereto show that the Commission for Lawyer Discipline has filed and there is now pending an Original Disciplinary Petition against Plaintiff, Charles W. Medlin. Plaintiff prays that this Court recognize that, if there was a question whether this case is ripe, that question has been answered and determine that this case is ripe. Plaintiff prays for general relief.

Respectfully submitted,
